

Spanish Film Thursdays Presents

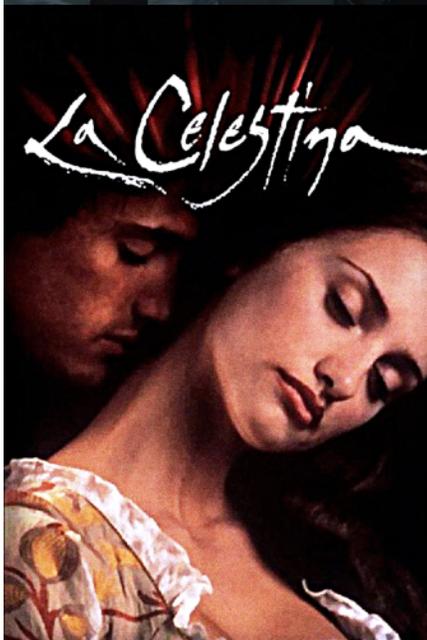

October 5

Argentina 1985 (Argentina, 2022)

Directed by Santiago Mitre

Starring: Ricardo Darín, Peter Lanzani,
Alejandra Flechner, Norman Briski

'Argentina, 1985' is inspired by the true story of Julio Strassera, Luis Moreno Ocampo in their David-vs-Goliath battle to prosecute Argentina's bloodiest military dictatorship.

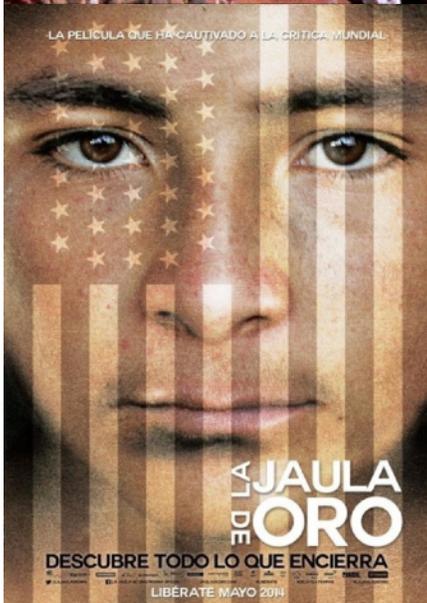

November 2

La Celestina (Spain, 1996)

Directed by Gerardo Vera

Starring: Penélope Cruz, Juan Diego Botto, Maribel Verdú,
Terele Pávez, Jordi Mollà

The young nobleman Calisto falls in love with Melibea, the daughter of a rich merchant. Calisto's servant Sempronio suggests they get the sorceress Celestina to further the romance.

December 7

La jaula de oro (México, 2013)

Directed by Diego Quemada-Díez

Starring: Brandon López

Juan, Sara, and Samuel, three teenagers from the slums of Guatemala, travel to the United States in search of a better life. Traveling together in freight trains and walking on railroad tracks, they soon have to face an odyssey that will change their lives forever.

Location: SEABURY 130

TIME: 4:30

Light refreshments will be served.